All companies that are part of the Tennessee Drug Free Workplace program are required to complete at least one-hour of employee education/awareness on substance abuse in the workplace annually. In addition to the employee training, employers must provide two-hours of training annually for all supervisors on recognition of substance abuse.

The class will proceed through the following outline:

- Introduction to the TN Drug Free Workplace Program and its requirements
- Ten most common drugs of abuse
- The testing process
- Signs and symptoms of drug abuse
- How to conduct for cause testing.

What are the benefits of a Drug Free Workplace?

- Companies operating a certified program in Tennessee qualify for a minimum of 5% reduction in workers' compensation insurance premiums..
- Drug free workplaces report lower absenteeism and tardiness rates.
- Helps reduce workplace accident rates that result in lower medical insurance premiums and increased productivity.
