

Cut Costs. Win More Jobs. Increase Profits.

HOW MUCH WILL YOU SAVE?

When the fringe portion of the prevailing wage is used to provide benefits for hourly workers, this amount is not subject to payroll costs such as FICA, federal and state unemployment taxes, and workers compensation insurance. A conservative estimate is that these costs represent an additional 25 cents on each dollar paid as cash wages.

"The Contractors Plan" can help you:

- Save on labor costs and expenses. We'll structure a program that fully discharges your fringe benefit obligation outside of payroll, drastically reducing labor costs.
- Bid more competitively. Creating efficiencies in your fringe benefit program reduces general and administrative costs, allowing you to lower your bid.
- Stay in compliance with DOL, IRS, and state regulations. In a dynamic regulatory environment, staying ahead of legislative and policy changes is vital for success. We have compliance experts both inside and outside The Beltway to ensure you are always educated, informed, and compliant.
- Respond quickly and accurately in the event of an audit. We partner with you to prepare your responses to inquiries and audits. Our sophisticated administrative and accounting platform puts answers at your fingertips. With 30 years of experience administrating fringe benefit plans for government contractors we understand the need to provide quick and accurate reporting for a rapid resolution.
- Eliminate the administrative burden of multiple vendors. Our "Total Fringe" solution provides a single pay point for all your fringe benefit health and welfare offerings.
- Maximize contributions to owner and key employee retirement accounts. Leverage prevailing wage retirement contributions to increase owner and key em-
